Case No. CR-12-0089 EMC STIPULATION AND PROPOSED ORDER AUTHORIZING TRAVEL TO ORANGE COUNTY

1 Friday, May 24, and return on Monday, May 27. These plans were made several weeks ago, well 2 before the sentencing hearing was continued to May 22. 3 Immediately following imposition of sentence, the defendants self-reported to the Probation Office to advise the duty officer that they had been placed on probation. Upon 4 informing the duty officer of their travel plans, the duty officer advised defendants (and 5 undersigned defense counsel) that a court order authorizing the travel would be necessary because 6 7 of the immediacy of the Penzatos' planned departure. The duty officer presented Mr. and Mrs. 8 Penzato with forms to complete concerning their travel plans and graciously offered to process the 9 forms on an expedited basis if and when a court order was issued. 10 As stated on the record at the sentencing hearing, the government does not oppose the proposed travel to and from Orange County. Accordingly, the parties hereby agree and stipulate 11 12 that Mr. and Mrs. Penzato should be permitted to travel from the Northern District of California to 13 the Central District of California – specifically, to Orange County – between May 24, 2013 and May 27, 2013. The parties further agree and stipulate that Mr. and Mrs. Penzato shall provide all 14 information requested by Probation concerning their itinerary and travel plans and shall not leave 15 16 the Northern District until authorized to do so by the Probation Office.
